The Biggest Game of the Season.

All Star team under auspices of the Elks vs. W. M. A. first team will play their annual game on the Academy gridiron Monday, Nov. 19, 1906, at 3 p. m. The All Star line-up will be composed of the best players of the universities, colleges and high school teams. Both teams are working hard for this game and it will be the hardest contested game on the Academy gridiron this season. This is the second annual game and everyone is taking great interest.

Wentworth 4; Lawrence 0.

The game of football on the Academy gridiron Saturday was the best game of this season and one of the most interesting ever played on the local grounds. The teams were evenly matched in weight and playing ability. Wentworth was more successful in line bucking and Lawrence was a little safer at the critical stages of the game. The game was won on a free catch made by Wade on the 25 yard line. Moore kicked goal.

It will be remembered that the Wentworth team this year consists entirely of new men except one, and that the team has been coached under the new rules. It is a remarkably well seasoned organization for the length of time it has been playing together, and next year it ought to make a great showing. Coach Church is undoubtedly the right man for his work and is deserving of great praise for the rapid development of a winning team from raw material however good.

Business men in appreciation of the finest game of the year, gave the cadet team a box party at the opera house Saturday, where Pryor's Band was enjoyed by the victors.

Run Over By a Train.

Word was received here Friday evening that George Eggleston son of Mr. and Mrs. William Eggleston, formerly of Lexington, was run over by a freight train at Higbee, Mo., and seriously hurt. Later it was learned that the young man lived only a few hours—long enough to be taken to his home in Slater.

George Eggleston is a nephew of John H. Eggleston of this city. He was born here and went with his parents to Slater sixteen years ago. He had for several years been in the service of the C. & A. Railroad Company and was a brakeman on the train which ran over him. He was 22 years of age.

Funeral services were held at the M. E. church in Slater Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. M. Rader. The burial services in the city cemetery were in charge of the Diamond Lodge No. 85 K. of P.

A Business Change.

The Lambert Lumber Company of Leavenworth, Kansas, has bought the yard of the McNeal-Parcher Lumber Company of this city and is now making invoice of the stock. Possession will be given at once.

The Lambert Company owns a yard at Excelsior Springs and six or seven yards in Kansas. Its officers are Missouri people, of Hannibal, Mo., and the company is incorporated under the laws of Missouri. Mr. Parcher will probably remain with the new management until the first of next year when he will return to his former home in Maryville. The outgoing manager has made friends rapidly here, and while the people will cordially welcome the new firm, they will regret to lose Mr. Parcher.

'Possum Supper.

The 'possum supper given Thursday night by Geo. B. Gordon to the newly elected county officers, the outgoing officers, and the speakers who lent aid in the canvass was enjoyed at Hinesley's by jolly company of about twenty. The menu consisted of roast 'possum, roast pig, sweet potatoes, corn bread, cider, butter, milk, and coffee served delightfully, as things are always served at Hinesley's. Brief speeches were made by Geo. B. Gordon, Wm. H. Cutler, Judge Young, H. F. Blackwell, Clarence Vivion, Charles Keith and Dr. J. J. Fulkerson. H. F. Blackwell was toastmaster.

Elks Minstrels.

On next Tuesday night at the opera house will be given a home talent minstrel show, under the auspices of the Elks Lodge. Local talent in the minstrel line has been demonstrated more than once, and the performance of our home people always excites the greatest enthusiasm. The minstrel show Tuesday night promises to be one of the liveliest events of the year and doubtless standing room will be in demand.

Ashbrook Sold.

Captain Ryland Todhunter and Geo. M. Catron have bought of James Terhune the great stallion Ashbrook. The public, or at least that part of the public which is interested in horses, will be glad to know that this great sire will not be taken away from this county. The horse was delivered to the new owners Wednesday.

The Pryor Band Concert.

Pryor's Band consisting of about forty pieces gave an enjoyable concert at the opera house Saturday evening, and the attraction deserved a much larger audience than was present. The program comprises about the same instrumentation as Sousa's band, with which the conductor was for many years associated as trombone soloist.

The program was largely popular in its character, constructed to please the greatest number, although it contained a standard overture and a scene and ensemble from "Andrea Chenier." Charming renditions were three movements of a Massenet suite, of which the "Angelus" affords excellent opportunity for organ effects from wind instruments. The pleasure from this number made one wish that the last movement entitled "Fate" might have been added.

Miss Thomas who possesses a rich contralto voice of wide range sang a Waltz song that was applauded to the echo.

Mr. Pryor himself played compositions of his own greatly to the delight of those who heard him eight years ago. As a slide trombone player he has very few equals, and both in tone and technique this virtuoso on his instrument leaves nothing to be desired. Evidently Mr. Pryor does not regard a band as a musical aggregation well suited to the serious study of orchestral literature, and wisely omits selections that some of his distinguished contemporaries persist in playing. As a conductor he is conventional, with no idiosyncrasies that sometimes prevail under the head of individual interpretation.

The Game Law.

Many inquiries are received by County Clerk Frank Thornton as to the necessity of taking out hunters' license, the St. Louis Court of Appeals having construed the law in one way and the Kansas City Court of Appeals the other way. The following letter from J. H. Rhodes, State game warden is self explanatory:

Replying to the queries contained therein beg to say in relation to the license question that it is still the ruling of this office that a license is required of every one hunting in this State whether within or without his own county. The Kansas City Court of Appeals has sustained this construction of the law and the case has now been certified to the Supreme Court. If the Supreme Court affirms the Kansas City Court then all persons who have undertaken to hunt without license will be subject to prosecution.

Death of Miss Lizette Shaw.

Died at her home in this city Tuesday night, Miss Lizette Shaw, aged about 48 years. Miss Shaw had been seriously ill only a few hours. A physician was called Tuesday morning and from the first held out no hope of recovery.

Miss Shaw was born near Lexington and has lived here all her life. She was a member of the Baptist church, devoted to its interests and its work. For several years she has been subject to attacks of acute melancholia.

Funeral services were held at the Baptist church Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. R. T. Manfield. Interment in Maplelawn cemetery.

The boys say that the Wellington vote at Tuesday's election worked on George till he got rattled and thought the democrats were going to take everything in sight, post office and all, fully believing the whole republican party was snowed under and for two days was shoveling snow (in his mind.) He is looking better now and it is likely will ultimately recover.
